pedo Was Used by Submarine.

Details Work Done by Consular

Officers at Queenstown.

from the reports rather dubious whether a second torpedo struck the ship.

Embassy Sent Officers.

all the descriptions, lists and informa-tion possible, supplemented by an examination of the articles removed from each body. Owing to the fact that most of the survivors had left on Saturday and that no passenger list of Ameri-cans could be obtained from the Cun-ard Line, it was difficult to identify the Americans: A passenger list was re-

Cunard company, in addition, to pho-tograph each body as an additional Burlal of Inidentified.

names of ten operators who died on duty

They are: George C. Eccels, steamship

Rosecrans; Donald C. Perkins, steam-ship State of California; Clifton J.

Fleming and Harry F. Otto, steamship

Francis H. Loggett; Adolph J. Svenson steamship Hanelel; Ferdinand Kuchn steamship Monroe, and Walter E. Reker

PEABODY ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Officers and Directors Chosen by Safety First Association.

were elected by the Washington Safety

First Association last evening at the an steamship Admiral Sampson,

The identified bodies were prepared

Woodward & Lothrop

NEW

Partly-made Robes, With Jaunty Bolero Jackets

Having short bolero front and longer in back; belted effects and beautifully styled models, trimmed with crochet buttons. The skirts are very new, in late circular cut and three yards around the bottom.

The material is Crepe Ratine in all fashionable colorings; some solid, while others are white grounds embroidered in dainty colors.

Women who de-ire summer frocks of exquisite and beautiful style will do well to inspect these partly-

Prices $15.00 and $18.00 each.

A Washable Kid Glove For Women

There have been Wash Kid Gloves put on the market before, but without much to recommend them to a discriminating clientele. This particular glove is beautiful, new and stylish and really washes satisfactorily, and with comparative ease. clasp Pique Sewn Glove, in putty, oyster and olive colors, with self and black embroidery.

The price is exceptionally moderate, $1.50 pair.

The New Celluloid Birds, 5c Each

Our first assortment was quickly disposed of, and now have another Ideal for decorating vases, tlower bowls and baskets, and are very pretty when set within a bouquet of flowers. Shown in various > Heretofore sold at double our price of 5c each.

For Milady's Garden

A plant trellis in bright green color, surnounted on either side with an exotic parrot, is a novel attraction, and a pretty one for the garden. They are 21 inches high and are made to fit pots 5 inches or larger in size.

$1.50 each.

A frame for plants, which consists of one stick and cross bars in green, is another new idea for plants. They are surmounted with a lively looking bullfinch and may be used in any pot.

$1.00 each.

Main floor-Stationery.

New Liberty Hats

We have recently received a shipment of New Liberty Hats, of Liberty straw, ideal for summer and use. They may be had in many colors-white, blue, old rose, green, brown and taupe. Vacationists will find in these a dainty and attractive hat at mod-

$1.25 each. Second floor-Eleventh street.

Aunt Lydia's Knitting Baskets

When all of the feminine world is knitting, one of grandmother's own bags is the best equipment. They are of straw, fitted with a capacious bag in old rose, old blue or violet sateen, and finished with silk cord and tassel.

For the summer embroidery work they are especially good, holding the article embroidered when not in use and therefore preventing it from being mis-

$1.50 each.

Second floor-Eleventh street

A Dainty Household Convenience

An idea which will be much appreciated by houserives who are constantly harrassed by not being able to find a cork or stopper for bottles.

A linen-color bag, containing corks of all sizes.

and fastened to the bottom is a corkscrew. The bag is trimmed in cretonne and may be had in pink or blue

$1.50 each.

Second floor-Eleventh street.

HEARING IN RIGGS SUIT AGAIN DELAYED

Arguments on Treasury Officials' Motion to Dismiss Will Be Heard Monday.

oves any and every corn or callus without fail, without fussing with thick bandages, toe harnesses, corn-swelling work is done, the corn shrivels up, your corn agony ends and the corn leaves forever! All the limping, the pains that dart to your heart's core, the crucifixion of having to wear shoes over screaming corns, the danger of blood poison from making them bleed by using knives, razors, and scissors—are gone at last! "GETS-IT" is the new way, the sure, simple, nainless way.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists

PHYSICIANS HONOR OFFICERS. PLAN TO DEVELOP

Banquet.

After a morning and afternoon session devoted to the presentation of a long list Virginia Organizes to Secure De-of scientific papers, the members of the Association of American Physicians, in sirable Settlers for that thirtieth annual meeting at the Raleigh Hotel, last night gathered about a banjust board in honor to their newly elect-Justice Met'ey in the District Supreme Court yesterday nostroned until Monday the Learn Sewell, president; George Dock, vice president; George M. Kober, the hearing in the case of the Riggs Screetary; Thomas Met'rae, recorder, J. P. Crozier Griffith, treasurer; Herbet C. Treasury McAdon, Comprodier Williams, and Richard P. Strong, alternate, will hear arguments on the Treasury to the Congress of Physical Representative form all the Log Unidentified dead were buried in three large graves in the Queenstown three large graves in the Queenstown three large graves in the Congress of the Riggs of Physical Representative to the Congress of Physical Representative form all the Congress of the Riggs of Physical Representative to the Congress of Physical Representative form all the Log Unidentified dead were buried in three large graves in the Queenstown three large gra

Woodward & Lothrop, dry goods, etc., 234 Fourth Avenue, Herald Square. H. King, dry goods and general mer-

BABY FOUND ON IRON BENCH. Five-weeks'-old Infant Taken to St

etc., Cumberland,

last night at 12 o'clock on a bench in front of 2213 Washington circle. It was hungry and very tired of sleaning. iron bed with no mattress, so it protested. Its cries attracted Miss Mame Clark, who had just alighted from a car and in line with the public utterances of Mr. was on her way to her home at 2215 Washington circle. Miss Clark picked up the infant and soothed it. Police-Washington circle. Miss Clark picked up the infant and soothed it. Policeman E. L. Blake took the baby to St.

Ann's Infant Asylum.

The baby was dressed in clothes of arwork is done, the corn shrivels up, your tistic taste and fine quality. It evidently corn agony ends and the corn leaves had been on the bench but a short time as it was warm when Miss Clark took it

> Want $50,000,000 for Highways. Harrisburg, Pa., May 12 .- A resolucorns, calluses, warts, and ber, 1918, a proposal to increase the the

THE SOUTHERN STATES

State.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., May 12.—On the invitaed officers. These officers, chosen in the closing minutes of the day session, are dust postering postraned until Monday process. Thomas Bether the following members and Treasurer John British. The court of the following members and Treasurer John British Description of the following members into the Southern Settlement of the Southern Settlemen

Miss L. McGill. laces and ribbons, similar to the Farms Company of Mary-Woodward & Lothrop, dry goods, etc., land can be formed in the various South-land can be forme F. E. Woodward, books and magazines, than repay the South. It will not be necessary to bring over only foreigners, as there are many desirable citizens in Miss H. C. Shute, corsets and muslin Canada and the West who would be only underwear. S. Kann, Sons & Co., dry too glad to go South if they had the subgoods, etc., 215 Fourth Avenue. After Mr. Warfield's address Gov. Stu-

TAFT LETTER PLEASES WILSON. Ex-President Gives Assurance

President Wilson was deeply grati-led at expressions of confidence and sup-White House yesterday.

The letter was not made public, but was understood that it was strictly Wilson their complete and uncuestion

Y. W. C. A. ELECTS DIRECTORS. Twenty-one Are Chosen for Three-

The Young Women's Christian Association yesterday held its annual election of directors. The twenty-one directors are president, William F. Peabody; first vice president, Daniel W. Edelin: second vice president, Walter B. Patterson; secretary, sen for a three-year term, seven of J. Clinton Hiatt; treasurer, Dr. Edgar I ber, 1918, a proposal to increase the debt of the State, $50,000,000 for road building purposes was presented by the board next Thursday. The association are found in the good roads advocate of the Senate today. It has the support of the governor and of the leg-day the board will elect the officers of D. Walter, George W. Evans, Rev. John islative leaders and will be rushed the annual meeting of the sasociation has $2,000 members, all of whom are permitted to vote. At the meeting Thursday, The sasociation has $2,000 members, all of whom are permitted to vote. At the meeting Thursday, The sasociation has $2,000 members, all of whom are permitted to vote. At the meeting Thursday, The sasociation and page upon the form D. Walter, George W. Evans, Rev. John islative leaders and will be rushed the sasociation and page upon the formal Vote Scheiter Edgard S. Martin and Walter. drug stores, People's drug stores, islative leaders and will be rushed the association and pass upon the fiscal Van Schaick, Edgar S, Martin, and Waiter, George W. Evans, Rev. John the legislature.

LUSITANIA SANK 100 BODIES SEEN IN 60 FATHOMS BY FISHING BOAT

U. S. Embassy Says One Tor- Patrol Steamer Is Sent from Queenstown to Recover Them if Possible.

118 AMERICANS MISSING INVESTIGATION STARTS

Sinking Took but Eighteen Minutes. Lusitania Survivors Notified to Be Prepared to Give Sworn Statements.

pecial Cable to The Washington Herald. London, May 12.—The following note By HERBERT TEMPLE.

London, May 12.—With a majority of the bodies of prominent Americans was issued today by the American Emwho lost their lives on the Lusitania "So far as the embassy has been able "So far as the embassy has been able to ascertain, the total number of American passengers aboard the Lusitania was 138. The number of survivors reported to the embassy by the Queenstown consults for missing, 118.

The number of survivors reported to to increase their efforts to find the lost corpses by sending out more tugs to search the waters off the south coast of Ireland. "It appears from all the statements of Ireland.

which have been secured that no warning was given. The torpedo hit amidships on the starboard side. The ship listed today by the British government. It because of the longitudinal, warship because of the bulkhends, the port air board of trade notified Lusitania surjected. The captain believed her nose touched bottom before her stern disappeared, accounting for the slight suction.

Charles Coke received a message this afternoon stating that a fishing boat "The sinking took eighteen minutes, and has seen 100 bodies ten miles south occurred at 2.22 o'clock." has seen 100 bodies ten miles south of Clandore and that a patrol boat of Clandore and that a patrol boat was immediately ordered to the scene The American Embassy also issued his note today:

Sixty miles of the south coast of Ireland is being patrolled by men hired by families of missing passenhis note today:
"Capt. A. M. Miller, of the American gens to search for bodies Embassy, who returned this morning beach. Those responsible for this infrom the scene of the disaster near dividual search were Lindon Bates, Queenstown, in a report to the Ambas- Fred J. Gauntlett, and Mr. Ware Queenstown at 1 p. m. on Sunday, and fog wreaths hung over the coast.

May 9, accompanied by Capt. W. A. The gloomy weather added to the Castle. Under instructions from May 9, accompanied by capt w. 5. The gloomy weather added to the Castle, Under instructions from the general mournfulness which prevailables assist survivors and also in taking steps to discover the identity of hodies project was under way.

lost on the Lusitania. Capt. Miller visit-ed the bodies which were in three lo-this morning stimulated hope that the calities, of which there were about remains of the Americans that have been ninety on Sunday. These were in sought so diligently might be among charge of the police, who had given them, but identification proved a painful them identification numbers and had process.
taken charge of all valuables and A Lusitania lifeboat containing the "Vice Consul Thompson had charge of the identification of the bodies which of the identification of the bodies which bodies will be brought to Queenstown. The belief is growing here that if ves-sels had been sent out to search the he conducted personally, armed with

GOES MAD BECAUSE OF WAR.

Work in Bureau Building.

ceived later, through the Ambassador on May 11. It was arranged with the for burial, those definitely identified and claimed being embalmed and the others placed in hermetically sealed caskets for shipment. The consul, with assistance, took statements, received imate Schinger. Themas Silva, H. D. Sonnetari, Charles H. Stevens, Mrs. Annie Taylor, Master Stanker Taylor, Mrs. and Mrs. Tesser, imable Tesser, Stanker Taylor, Mrs. and Mrs. Tesser, imable Tesser, Scott Turner, John Vance, Michael Ward, Mrs. Catherin Wilkey, R. S. Williams, Mrs. A. S. Wiltherbee, Master Witherbee, Master Witherbee, Master Witherbee, Mrs. Charles for Jane) Worden.

DEDICATE SHAFT TO HEROES.

Wireleas Men Who Died at Sea Honored by Their Fellows.

New York, May 12.—In the presence of Acting Mayor McAneny and a large crowd, the monument to the wireless heroes who went down with their ships was dedicated today. The shaft, which was erected through contributions of wireless operators, is inscribed with the wireless of waster corps, Sergt. Serged, Sanday, upon complete will be sent to Fort Morgan. Als., to relieve Quartermaster Corps, Sergt. Garcia upon relief will be sent to Port Morgan. Mrs. Russell Dennis, who recently returned from the Philippine Islands, tendered a banquet in honor of Mr. Russell Dennis, who recently returned from the Philippine Islands, tendered a banquet in honor of Mr. Daniel P. Collins. The guests of the Port Winfield Scott, Cal., to relieve Quartermaster Corps, Sergt. Schwechten upon relief will be sent to Fort Liscum, Als.-ks, for duty.

Quartermaster Sergt. Frank W. Tilford, Quartermaster was dedicated today. The shaft, which was erected through contributions of the wireless operators, is inscribed with the was erected through contributions of wireless operators, is inscribed with the naster Corps, upon arrival at Fort McDowell, Cal., om Manila, P. I., will be sent to El Paso, Tex., duty in the Philippine Department

NAVAL ORDERS. MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS.

Chattanooga arrived at San Diego, May 10; Rablegh arrived at La Paz, May 10; Marietta arrived at President Roade, May 11; Glacier arrived at Marialand, May 11. Fanning arrived at Lynnhaven Roads, May 11; Jarvis arrived at Lynnhaven Roads, May 11; Jouett arrived at Lynnhaven Roads, May 11; Jouett arrived at Lynnhaven Roads, May 11; Jen kins arrived at Lynnhaven Roads, May 11. ORDERS TO OFFICERS The following officers and directors

Today's Opportunity Serving Tables

A Host of Designs in All Kinds of Wood.

Our line of Serving Tables is remarkably complete. You'll find almost every design that is good to harmonize with your dining-room furniture, and every Serving Table in stock is priced low today.

"WHAT WE SAY IT IS-IT IS."

Doings of Society

The Secretary of State and Mrs. have returned to the West to Bryan were guests of honor last ever til the autumn. ning at a dinner given by Mr. and at dinner Tuesday evening, when her Medical Director and Mrs. Frances guests were the Postmaster General Nash entertained at dinner at the and Mrs. Burleson, Col. and Mrs. W. delphia, who is the guest of their daughter, Miss Carolyn Nash. The marriage of Miss Ruth Bliss,

The marriage of Miss Ruth Bliss, daughter of Mrs. George Bliss, and Capt. Lewis Hayes Watkins, U. S. A. took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother in Bancroft place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father McDonnell, rector of St Aloysius' Church, before an improvised alter banked with palms and pink and alter banked with palms and pink and white spring flowers, and covered with a canopy of smilax. Only members of the family and a few close friends were present at the ceremony and a small reception followed, to which a number of additional guests were in-by her brother, Mr. George Bliss, and their guest this evening, were a gown of soft white satin and wore a gown of soft white satin and rare old Venetian point lace made with a court train falling from the shoulders, caught with orange blossoms. Her tulle veil was arranged in house guest, Miss Frances Sullivan, of turned from the Philippine Islands, Mr. Howard Elliott, president of the tendered a banquet in honor of Mr. New York, New Haven and Hartford Daniel P. Collins. The guests of the Railroad Company, arrived at the Wil-evening were as follows: R. Everett lard yesterday. Murray, E. Adolph Green, Rev. B. Tur-Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas, Mr. and hostess at a bridge party yesterday aft-Fred Sweeney, and Col. T. Richardson. The banquet was held at his resi-dence, 431 Sixth street.

ed at luncheon yesterday at the Pan-American Building. The guests in-cluded the Secretary of State, the Am-Chile, the Ambassador of Argentina, street the Minister of Uruguay, the Minister of Peru, the Minister of Santo Doningo, the Minister of Cuba, the Minister of Quatemala, the Minister of Haiti, the Minister of Costa Rica, the Minister of Salvador, the Minister of Bolivia, the Minister of Nicaragua, Mr. John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, and Mr. of the Pan-American Union.

The Minister of Honduras entertain-

Miss A. M. Longfellow, of Cambridge, has arrived at the Shoreham to spend

Mrs. John B. Henderson was hostess

hevy Chase Club last evening in W. Harts, Maj. and Mrs. Charles one of Miss Ellen Newbold, of Phila-W. Kutz, and Mr. Duval West. Mr. and Mrs. 1. T. Mann will be Club this evening.

soon as news of the disaster reached here, more passengers would have been words. The best of the disaster reached here are passengers would have been wited.

Similar reception followed, to which a miss edithe Temple Gracie is visiting number of additional guests were in-plaza, in New York, Mr. and Mrs. Words. The bride was given in marriage rall will entertain at dinner in honor of

Work in Bureau Building.

H. J. Day. 23. a watchman in the Bureau of Mines, went suddenly insane early this morning while performing his duties in the bureau, Other watchmen in the building held the man while police from the First police station were responding to the alarm. He was taken to the Washington Asylum Hospital for observation.

Day's associates attributed his losing of his senses to the European war. They declared he was a strong sympathizer of Germany and continually brought the war into his conversation. Day lives in Berwyn, Md.

WOMAN'S SHOT SCARES BURGLAR

WOMAN'S SHOT SCARES BURGLAR

Burglian and was a strong sympathizer work and his best man were in uniform. Mrs. Bliss, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of lavender many and watchman in the Burglian and she carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley. Todd.

Among the dinner hosts at the Chevy Chase Club last evening were Capt, and Mrs. T. A. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hill, and was gowned in pink embroidered net with blue and trimmed in pink roses. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses tied with blue ribbons. Capt. James A. O'Connor, U. S. A., was best man. Both Capt. Watkins and his best man were in uniform. Mrs. Bliss, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of lavender watch with polarity and many and Mrs. Richardson Clover, Miss Margaret Britton, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Clapham, and a coresage bouquet of orchids and biles of the valley.

The Bard Team in RacTrade Ba morning.

Admiral Reicher arrived in Washington Mr. I. N. Kellberg, chairman; Mrs. Huf-yesterday from New York and is at the Shoreham.

The committee in charge consists of Mr. I. N. Kellberg, chairman; Mrs. Huf-fine, Miss Elker, Miss Lawson, and Mr. Rawdon.

afternoon at her residence in Biltmo

Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson entertained at a large reception yesterday afternoon in honor of the delegates to the convention of the American Federa-tion of Arts. There was music through-

At the apron sale at the Cairo today from 4 to 8 for the benefit of the D. C. W. S. A., Mrs. Champ Clark, an hon-orary member of the association, has vited.

Mrs. Richard Mansfield, widow of the given, and a "grand cake walk," with late actor, is at the Willard. Mrs. Mansfield read the prologue at the entertainment of the American Federation of Arts.

Moving pictures are to be taken by a walkly motion picture.

See the Duplex Fireless Cooker

Demonstrated in Our -Housefurnishing Dept.

The food is cooked better and

The food is cooked better and tastes better.

Reduces the cost of fuel. The money saved for fuel will pay for the cooker in a short time.

Makes cooking easy for the housekeeper, giving opportunity for other pursuits.

Kitchen odors eliminated.

Meat is made tender when cooked in the Duplex way.

There is no need of stirring—no fear of scorching or burning.

Dinner can be prepared in the cool of the morning. Breakfast may be placed in the stove in the evening.

Ideal for fishing and camping outfits.

Priced from $5.50, according to Dalin & Martin Co

NEW FLORENCE

Virginia Avenue near beach, $10.00 up weekly, $2.00 up daily. Saturday to Monday, $3.50. Booklet. K. SCHUMAN. HOTEL JACKSON
VIRGINIA AVENUE AND BEACE.
First house from Boardwalk and Steel Pier. Ele stor. Moderate rates. J. B. GORMLET.

EXCURSIONS.

Pleasure Trips OLD POINT COMFORT CHAMBERLIN HOTEL

Fri. to Tues ... NEW YORK and BOSTON BY SEA

MODERN PALACE STEAMERS.

NORFOLK & WASHINGTON

STEAMBOAT CO.

Luncheon 12:30 to 2:30. Dinner

A la Carte Service

Dine among genteelly elegant

Dr. W. E. Musgrove, of Manila, Philip-pine Islands, arrived at the Ebbitt year

Mr. Carlos Herquinigo and Dr. and hostess at a bridge party yesterday afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club in honor of Mrs. Thomas Creighton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kuhn, of Pittsburgh, have arrived jn Washington and are at the Shoreham.

The Young People's Society of St. Stephen's Episcopai Church will hold a dance and picnic on Friday, May 14, at the Pavillon, Chain Bridge. The members and their friends will meet at the Pavillon at 6 p. m.

Mr. W. B. Bullach, Mrs. Bullach, and Miss Bullach are in the city for the horse show. They are stopping at the Ebbitt.

WILL FROLIC AROUND FIRES. Board of Trade Members Will Also Play Ball and Hear Songs.

The shad bake committee of the Board of Trade issued a hand-bill yesterday which proclaims in flaring type orary member of the association, has promised the ladies in charge that she will be present and say something on the subject of aprons. The public is invited. game is to be played, a minstrel show

Commissioner of Corporations and Mrs. on the morning of May 22, and another terday morning for a stay of several

Mrs. G. Navarse, of Chile, are among Mrs. John Walker Holcombe was at present staying at the Willard.

Mrs. Mason, wife of Rear Admiral at the Ebbitt. He arrived in the city yesterday morning.

given in the large ballroom of the Wil-lard last evening.

"Many other sports" are prom-ised. Trains will leave here at 18:36 outfite.

THE DUPLEX STOVE CAN FURNISH A HOT MEAL ANY-WHERE.

Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, Etc. 1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

SPRING RESORTS.